

UNITED STATES' DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE
DELAWARE DIVISION

AZUBUKO - Plaintiff

vs.

EASTERN BANK - Defendant

CIVIL ACTION NUMBER:
05-031-SLR

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF APPEAL

On more scores than one, “everyone should strive to keeping her/his straight arms” and “it is mankind that makes the land not to be good.” The Plaintiff would like to appeal the Court’s questionable ruling on the case to the United States’ Third Circuit Appeals Court hand-dated March 18th, 2005 strikingly on the basis of “... of problems with the court’s ability to exercise personal jurisdiction over defendant.” It was received on Wednesday – March 23rd – 2005. It would be advantageous to promptly that there was no jurisdictional discovery whatsoever prior to the precocious dismissal!

The Plaintiff’s Motion for Reconsideration was dated March 23rd and was mailed on March 26th – 2005. The motion was pending, but the Plaintiff’s other submission/s had been returned, on the ground that the case had been closed. Such an obstruction of justice propensity would be meted out against the Motion for Reconsideration, all things being equal. Evidently, the appeal was timeous or timely.

Respectfully submitted on Monday – March 28th – 2005
